Apparel and Fabrics of a Triple Distinctiveness.

A distinctiveness in style—long years of study and experience enter into the selection of every garment or fabric that finds place in our stock, with the result that none but the freshest and most attractive of styles ideas finds its way here.

A distinctiveness in quality—we've never allowed seemingly attractive prices to incline us in favor of shoddy imperfect goods. Women have come to know that this is a "safe" place at which to shop—that there'll be at least one hundred cents of value obtained for every dollar spent.

A distinctiveness in price—constant planning and a vigilant watch of the markets enable us to utilize to the fullest extent the unusual buying facilities we enjoy.

It will pay you to shop here.

The Spring Suit Styles.

Less than a week since they've seen the light of day, these fore-runners of Spring fashions. But aside from the interest attached to the first style message for the coming season, there are unusually desirable garments, of the type that appeals to the woman or miss of exquisite taste and particular requirements in her dressing.

There are fine whipcords in tan, navy, or black, with heavy stitching for ornament; serges and diagonals also in navy, tan, or black, with fancy trimmed revers; fine serges, becoming to almost any figure, made with very straight, very long revers, in tan, blue or black.

For women and misses at $15, $20, $25 and $35.

THE GENTLE CYNIC

A shady past seldom has a silver-lined future.

The bachelor who sympathizes with a fair widow is lost.

Fools jump at conclusions, but the wise run the other way.

He is an ungrateful man who lives beyond his wife's means.

Where there's a will there's a fighting chance for the lawyers.

A good many decided blondes got the decision from a druggist.

Many a man with a way of his own has a wife who outwights him.

Even women who lack the sense of humor want to be jollied all the time.

Most of the free advice is handed out by people who want to get rid of it.

It sometimes happens that a pessimist is a married man who can't forget it.

There is said to be happiness among some savage tribes where money is unknown.

Suppose the prodigal son had come home to find that his family had turned vegetarians!

There is only one thing that travels faster than bad news, and that is the reputation of being an easy mark.

A man is never old enough to know enough not to marry a girl who is young enough to be his granddaughter.

THREE OR FOUR

"I notice that you call your wife Sugar."

"I've always called my wives 'Sugar.'"

"Um! How many lumps have you had?"

After the Robbery.

Woman (to detective)—Why, it was this way: There came a ring at the door and there stood two men who said they were from the gas company, inspecting meters. They looked so dishonest I thought they were, so I let them in!

Truly Conservative.

Talleyrand's conservatism was summed up by a witty patriot, Paul de Courrier, who declared that if Talleyrand had been present at the creation, he would have exclaimed: "Good gracious! Chaos will be destroyed!"

Very Realistic.

First Paris Artist—Vy you put zat salt wid ze paint? Second Artist—Eet is for a marine picture. I make ze paint salt; zen when ze English put zair fingers to zair lips, zay say, "Eet is wonderful, almost taste ze salt ze ocean." Zan say buy.

We Believe In Trading Up to An Ideal, Not Bargaining Down to a Price.

Here it is that our "Don't Shoot Sale" is remarkably successful. It ends this week. We expect when Saturday night comes that every Suit and Overcoat of this season will be doing service this season. Some man who knows a bargain when he sees it, will probably be wearing the very outfit you should have yourself. Nearly all Suits and Overcoats are one-half price this week. The others are one-third off. Boys' and Children's Suits and Knee Pants are one-half price.
